

BEACONS WATER TRAIL

BEACONS WATER TRAIL

To navigate the Ashford Tunnel ring British Waterways on: (01873) 831788. Carry a torch and whistle through the tunnel and give way to narrow boats (no competition!).

Taff Trail
Access across the Beacons to Cardiff

Do I need to buy a licence to use the canal? Yes, but it doesn't cost much. You don't need one if you belong to the British Canoe Union. You can buy a short term licence online at www.waterscape.co.uk

HIDDEN DANGERS

Watch out for low branches and trees in the river.

HIGH WATER

Unless you're an expert, rivers are very dangerous for canoeing in spate or flood - keep off if the water is brown or red in colour.

WILDLIFE

Keep your eyes open for kingfishers, otters, heron, water voles, red kites, dippers and salmon. Go quietly to avoid disturbing them.

ACCESS

From The Boathouse upstream to Fenni-fach rapids, there is year-round access to the river. For the rest of the river there are restrictions. Please see: www.wyeuskfoundation.org enjoy peace and quiet too - pass quietly.

FISHERMEN

Paddle Softly!
Take nothing but memories
Leave nothing but ripples
Kill nothing but time

Yes we do, Bob!
We always wear a buoyancy jacket don't we Bob?
